

SPECIAL SALE

STILL ON

NOTHING is more gratifying to us than the spontaneous response which you have given to our Autumn Sale. The inducements we are offering could not do less than attract all who need merchandise and seek the largest measure of value for their money. This Sale continues until Saturday night, Oct. 22, 1904, at which time all discounts and special prices will be withdrawn. There are bargains in Groceries, Dry Goods, Carpets, Curtains, Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Hats, Caps, in short in every department in our store. Don't be too slow! You will need these goods within a few days and this is an opportunity to make a material, worth while saving. This is our only great Discount Sale before the final Clearing Sale at the end of the season.

V. G. LYFORD

Royally Entertained.

A party of friends gathered at the home Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson on South Chase street on Wednesday evening complementary to Mrs. Merrill, Mr. Wilsons sister of Los Vegas, Texas. Musical selections by Miss Lillian Banks of Decatur, Ill., were enjoyed by the company after which there were several hotly contested games of flinch by some of the veteran players present. Splendid refreshments rounded out an unusually pleasant evening. Mrs. Merrill has made many friends in Falls City during her visit of the past summer and Mr. and Mrs. Wilsons hospitality is famous.

Friends in Council.

The Friends in Council met at the home of Miss Myrtle Bowers Friday evening.

PROGRAM.

Roll Call.....Current Events
Revenue—The Russian Advance.....
Reading.....Mrs. Barton
Current Topics.....Josephine Gehling
Miss Lillian Banks of Decatur, Ill., favored the Club with two instrumental selections.

The president of the club Miss Wilson and Mrs. Barton will represent the club at the Federation of clubs at Seward, Iowa.

Miss Anna Shaffer was the guest of the club.

Hostesses October 21. Mrs. Roberts and Miss Botts.

Mrs. Donivan Entertains.

Mrs. Donivan entertained at her home on Saturday evening of last week.

Miss Lillian Banks of Decatur, Ill., rendered several musical selections.

Anita Wilson and Nellie Jennings rendered several duets.

Those present were Mr and Mrs Shafer, Mr and Mrs Wilson, Mr and Mrs Jennings, Mr and Mrs Jaquet, Mr and Mrs Varner, Mrs C. Banks, Misses Gilman, Bowers, Shaffer, Banks and Mrs Merrald.

Sorosis Club.

Mrs. G. C. Jennings was the hostess of the Sorosis Club on Wednesday of this week. A large representation of the ladies were present and spent a delightful afternoon. A feature of the program was a select reading by Mrs. Smith. The committee appointed to present a petition to the city council on the sewerage matter reported progress. Mrs. Jennings served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Clyde Johnston was sent to Seward as a delegate from the Sorosis club to the state federation annual meeting this week. Mrs. Wm. Wilson also attended and read a paper on "Art."

These ladies can ably represent the local organization.

A number of young ladies met at the home of Miss Stella Stone on Wednesday evening and organized a club. The clubs will meet every two week and will be known as the "Heart and Hand" club.

Marriage Record.

Ira Martin, Abilene, Kas.24
Grace Allemand, Stella.....22
Henry weik, Falls City.....28
Anna Constantine, same.....19

Gas, Oil and Coal.

There is a petition being circulated in this city and being subscribed too quite freely for the purpose of forming a company to bore for coal, gas or oil near Falls City. This is a worthy undertaking and one that will be of great benefit for the town, if successful which we have no doubt it will be.

Government Engineer.

R. E. Grinstead has secured the assistance of the United States government on his drainage plan. By correspondence with Secretary of Agriculture Wilson he secured the promise of a visit from F. Elliot Esq. who is chief engineer for the United States in the great irrigation districts. Mr Elliott and Mr Grinstead spent all day Tuesday on the Nebraska bottoms investigating the overflow condition. If there is a doubting Thomas on the drainage scheme we will venture a talk with Mr Elliott will prove convincing.

Wife Desertion.

Gertrude Brisby commenced action against her husband Lewis Brisby of Shubert for abandonment and failure to support her. This couple were married by Judge Wilhite about a month ago. The defendant has been arrested and the case will be tried in a few days.

Don't miss Meyers sale on Majestic Ranges all next week a beautiful set of ware worth $7.50 given absolutely free with each range sold during this exhibit.

We carry a....

COMPLETE LINE OF

Building Material

And all kinds of

COAL

WE SOLICIT YOUR PATRONAGE

Chicago Lumber & Coal Co.

TELEPHONE 58.